

I Think I'll Get My Haircut

Jona Lewie

I wish a girl would invite me to dance
But I suppose I don't stand a chance
They prefer to dance with their own handbags
I think I feel a little bit sad

Well, I think I'll get my haircut
And then (And then) maybe (Maybe)
I'll be in luck, I'll be in luck, I'll be in luck

That girl on the wagon train
Who said no when I moved in
Has just shot down another man dead
It must have been something he said

Well, I think I'll try getting my haircut
And then maybe I'll be in luck

I think I'll try getting my haircut
And then (And then) maybe (Maybe)
I'll be in luck, I'll be in luck, I'll be in luck

Well, I think (You think) I'll try getting my haircut (Haircut)
And then (And then) maybe (Maybe)
I'll be in luck, I'll be in luck, I'll be in luck, I'll be in l uck

I see couples in the center of the floor
Boys are retreating to the back of the hall
Girls are going before the last dance ends
I've got this feeling that there's something wrong

Maybe (Maybe) I tried too hard to get there
Maybe (Maybe) I've got (He's got) the right hai
