It's so weird

I see you like a billboard, painted in the sky
You're everywhere tonight
You light up like Shanghai at night
I see you like a billboard, stranger in the night
Something that reminds me
You're still living here in my mind

My mind, my mind
My mind, my mind
My mind, my mind
You're still living here in my mind

I see you like a billboard, stranger in the night
Something that reminds me
You're still living here in my mind

I see you like a billboard, painted in the sky (I see you)
You're everywhere tonight
You light up like Shanghai at night
I see you like a billboard, stranger in the night
Something that reminds me
You're still living here in my mind (You're living here in my mind)

My mind, my mind
My mind, my mind (My mind)
My mind, my mind (My mind)
You're still living here in my mind
