

Naked

Jonas Blue

You only say you love me when we're naked
When you're banging on my bedroom door
You only say you love me when you want me and we're naked
When you're laying on my bathroom floor

Hourglass shape, full figure
Silhouette send me off like a trigger
Goddamn I'm the man when I'm with her
(Oh-oh-oh-oh-oh)
Think I've fallen but I know I can't tell her
She got a mind that can change with the weather
She'd even eat me alive if I let her
(Oh-oh-oh-oh-oh)

When you call me late at night
Tell me you're just passing by
You got something else on your mind, I'm yours (I'm yours)
But in the morning light
When you're waking up by my side
You forgot what you said last night
(Oh-oh-oh-oh-oh)

You only say you love me when we're naked
When you're banging on my bedroom door
You only say you love me when you want me and we're naked
When you're laying on my bathroom floor

Way we do, it feels so good
I don't stop you when I should
When we go, it goes so hard
Almost let you break my heart

You only say you love me when we're naked
When you're banging on my bedroom door

You keep me up all night, no quitting
Appetite for delight, no limit
So fine, I'll make her mine in a minute
(Oh-oh-oh-oh-oh)
She can wreck my world if she wanna
Kinda thing you do for love when you never
Make a grown man melt like butter
(Oh-oh-oh-oh-oh)

When you call me late at night
Tell me you're just passing by
You got something else on your mind, I'm yours (I'm yours)
But in the morning light
When you're waking up by my side
You forgot what you said last night
(Oh-oh-oh-oh-oh)

You only say you love me when we're naked
When you're banging on my bedroom door
You only say you love me when you want me and we're naked
When you're laying on my bathroom floor

Way we do, it feels so good
I don't stop you when I should
When we go, it goes so hard
Almost let you break my heart

You only say you love me when we're naked
When you're banging on my bedroom door

Something 'bout me with no clothes
Makes her wanna love me more
Don't know what it is for sure
Something on my body makes
Her say things she shouldn't say
Guess it's just the way I'm made up
(That's right, let's go)

You only say you love me when we're naked
When you're banging on my bedroom door
You only say you love me when you want me and we're naked
When you're laying on my bathroom floor

Way we do, it feels so good
I don't stop you when I should
When we go, it goes so hard
Almost let you break my heart

You only say you love me when we're naked
When you're banging on my bedroom door
