

Supernova

Jonas Blue

Cold eyes, blank stare
Faces on a bus, but I just don't care
True lies buzzing in my ear
Spending all my money, but I won't buy fear

'Cause I-I-I'm looking for a love I can find out here
'Cause I-I-I'm living through a screen but the feel ain't there

Forget what the teardrops told ya
We gon' be alright, we gon' be alright, yeah-yeah-yeah
Shine bright like the fires that burned ya
We gon' be alright, we gon' be alright

We just keep on holding, holding
Never in control, yeah
Riding, rollin', devil on your shoulder
Don't cry, little supernova
We gon' be alright, we gon' be alright, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah

Devil on your should.. don't cry, don't cry, little supernova
Devil, devil
Devil on your should.. don't cry, don't cry, little supernova
Devil on your shoulder

Same life, I'm done
Chasing pretty things never feels like fun
No ride, I can't run
Waitin' for a train, but it never comes

'Cause I-I-I'm looking for a love I can find out here
'Cause I-I-I'm living through a screen but the feel ain't there

Forget what the teardrops told ya
We gon' be alright, we gon' be alright, yeah-yeah-yeah
Shine bright like the fires that burned ya
We gon' be alright, we gon' be alright

We just keep on holding, holding
Never in control, yeah
Riding, rollin', devil on your shoulder
Don't cry, little supernova
We gon' be alright, we gon' be alright, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah

Devil on your should.. don't cry, don't cry, little supernova
We gon' be al..
Devil on your should.. don't cry, don't cry, little supernova
Devil on your should..
Devil on your should.. don't cry, don't cry, little supernova
We gon' be al..
Devil on your should.. don't cry, don't cry, little supernova
Devil on your shoulder
