

Bully

Jonas Brothers

You can be a bully sometimes
You know exactly what I like

In the midnight hour, I'm giving you the power
You took the mundane, and you flipped it sideways
It's so exciting, you know that I want it right now, right now

Yeah, yeah, your interpretations got hidden motivations
Like a vicious cycle, and I'm your disciple
You're so enticing, you know that I want it right now, right now

You can be a bully sometimes
You know exactly what I like
Call the shots and play with my mind
It gets me going every time
There's something about the quick reset
The smoke in your silhouette in bed
You can be a bully sometimes
I think I like it, I think I like it

Loving all your hot takes, and you're trolling on me
Like all night and all day, then you leave me lonely
You know that you got it, you know that I want it, right now
Right now

You can be a bully sometimes
You know exactly what I like
Call the shots and play with my mind
It gets me going every time
There's something about the quick reset
The smoke in your silhouette in bed
You can be a bully sometimes
I think I like it, I think I like it

I can't figure out what's so wrong about
My brain, but I'm caught in the middle, yeah
We don't call it love
It's so dangerous-ous-ous

You can be a bully sometimes
You know exactly what I like
Call the shots and play with my mind
It gets me going every time
There's something about the quick reset
The smoke in your silhouette in bed
You can be a bully sometimes
I think I like it, I think I like it

I think I like it
You can be a bully sometimes
Call the shots and play with my mind
I think I like it, I think I like it
You can be a bully sometimes
