Jonas Brothers

Ooh, it's amazing that you came here
But there's a feeling that I can't ignore
When we go out like that, and you don't write me back
Got me like, ooh, got me like, ooh, yeah
I thought that we had a connection, yeah
But you keep putting me in second place
Pull me in to push me back, I ain't going out like that Got me like, woo, got me like, woo

You're the kind of person to put yourself first, yeah
You're the kind of person to boost your self worth, yeah
Acting like it's nothing only makes it worse, yeah
You're the kind of person to put yourself first, yeah

La la la la la la la la, la la la la la
First
La la la la la la la la, la la la la la
First

And you been playing me since day one, yeah
And truth is I think that I like the torture
I adored you, but I warned you
That I wouldn't be treated like a doormat no more, yeah
Now I'm feeling like, woo

You're the kind of person to put yourself first, yeah
You're the kind of person to boost your self worth, yeah
Acting like it's nothing only makes it worse, yeah
You're the kind of person to put yourself first, yeah

La la la la la la la la, la la la la la
First
La la la la la la la la, la la la la la
First

You're the kind of person to put yourself first, yeah
You're the kind of person to boost your self worth, yeah
Acting like it's nothing only makes it worse, yeah
You're the kind of person to put yourself first, yeah
