

Dinner For Two

Jonasu

Boy it's been a long time
Probably do it all night
Finally making dinner for two

I'm lighting candles for you
Blushing like the rose in the room
Against the couch on the floor
Darling, can I pour you some more?

Put your hands on me
Yeah I say merci
Oh la la la la j'adore
'Cause your company
Tastes like something sweet
But nothing like I've ever had before

Boy it's been a long time
Probably do it all night
Finally making dinner for two
Gotta skip dessert for red wine
Can we do it all night yeah
Finally making dinner for two

Boy it's been a long time
Probably do it all night
Finally making dinner for two
Gotta skip dessert for red wine
Can we do it all night yeah
Finally making dinner for two

I didn't know what to wear
What I love is that you don't even care
Take another step up the stairs
But you kissing like we're already there

Put your hands on me
Yeah I say merci
Oh la la la la j'adore
'Cause your company
Tastes like something sweet
But nothing like I've ever had before

Boy it's been a long time
Probably do it all night
Finally making dinner for two
Gotta skip dessert for red wine
Can we do it all night yeah
Finally making dinner for two

Boy it's been a long time
Probably do it all night
Finally making dinner for two
Gotta skip dessert for red wine
Can we do it all night yeah
Finally making dinner for two

Too long

All night
I want it all night yeah
Been waiting for your touch
One more time, can't get enough
Dim the lights and give me your love

Boy it's been a long time
Probably do it all night
Finally making dinner for two
Gotta skip dessert for red wine
Can we do it all night yeah
Finally making dinner for two

Boy it's been a long time
Probably do it all night
Finally making dinner for two
Gotta skip dessert for red wine
Can we do it all night yeah
Finally making dinner for two
