Jonasu

Tiny things that you do drive me crazy
Words don't come out the way they should
I wish they would
You're so shy and I wish you were all mine
I freeze every time I make a move
I don't wanna play to lose

I like you enough to man up and be honest
I won't let it slide, no
You know that I want you so don't be so modest
I won't let it slide

Come meet me at the place
Where no one knows our name
At the westside
Meet me at the westside
We'll go hit the beach
I will teach you how to kiss me
At the westside
Kiss me at the westside

Boy ya fine if you're standing so close by Acting like you don't know you're hot
Like you just forgot
Left and right you've been dropping these signals
You never seem to take the lead
I guess it's up to me
