

More Than A Stranger

Jonasu

One more drink and it's so cold
Everybody needs somebody
Let's keep pretending it's emotional
I don't need my one and only

Sorry
If I can't be the love of your life
We're lonely tonight
You don't need to know me
So we can keep believing a lie
Hold me like I'm more
Than a stranger tonight

Sorry
If I can't be the love of your life
We're lonely tonight
You don't need to know me
So we can keep believing a lie
Hold me like I'm more
Than a stranger tonight

Sorry
If I can't be the love of your life
We're lonely tonight
You don't need to know me
So we can keep believing a lie
Hold me like I'm more
Than a stranger tonight

Where's the limit of wrong and right?
Are we just scared to be alone?
One more minute then it's goodbye
I don't need my one and only

Sorry
If I can't be the love of your life
We're lonely tonight
You don't need to know me
So we can keep believing a lie
Hold me like I'm more
Than a stranger tonight

Sorry
If I can't be the love of your life
We're lonely tonight
You don't need to know me
So we can keep believing a lie
Hold me like I'm more
Than a stranger tonight

Sorry
If I can't be the love of your life
We're lonely tonight
You don't need to know me
So we can keep believing a lie
Hold me like I'm more

Hold me, hold me
