Why you gotta go kill my mood
Telling me the things I should do
Playing round with my feelings boy you know I don't need it
Why you gotta go kill my mood you must think I belong to you
How many times have I told ya
You should know that I'm over you

It's been so long since you've been around
A lot of time has passed and things have changed
Now your here saying you want me now
Treating me like I'm some stupid game

There are some things I think that you should know
My life's so much better since I let you go
Too hard to breath when your under control
I'm sorry but goodbye

Why you gotta go kill my mood
Telling me the things I should do
Playing round with my feelings boy you know I don't need it
Why you gotta go kill my mood you must think I belong to you
How many times have I told ya
You should know that I'm over you

It's too late for an apology
And it wouldn't make me change my mind
Jealousy's the only memory
That you left me with but now I'm fine

There are some things I think that you should know
My life's so much better since I let you go
Too hard to breath when your under control
I'm sorry but goodbye

Why you gotta go kill my mood
Telling me the things I should do
Playing round with my feelings boy you know I don't need it
Why you gotta go kill my mood you must think I belong to you
How many times have I told ya
You should know that I'm over you
