Violet fields turn into gravestone
I can't feel, I never get home
Violet fields turn into gravestone
I can't feel, I never get home

I can't see, my dreams are too real
I need an escape
You know I don't give a fuck, can't learn from my mistakes
Violet fields blossoming high
In a new dimension, fallout behind
I fell too far in a cathedral
I'm behind bars
The wind smells like mint
I can't think, I need no 'scape
I need no 'scape

Hammer falls, lightning strikes
No regards
I'm falling far, far away with you
I become invisible, I fly through the roof
I take off, no landing
I can't see

Violet fields turn into gravestone
I can't feel, I never get home

I can't see, my dreams are too real
I need an escape
I don't give a fuck, can't learn from my mistakes
Violet fields turn into gravestone
I can't feel, I never get home
I fell too far, I fell too far, in a cathedral
I'm behind iron bars
I'm behind i-, I'm behind i-
I'm behind iron bars
I'm behind Xanax bars
In a cathedral, can't get out
I wanna get out, can't get out
I wanna get out, get out
From here, from here
