Might have broke the window last night, I can't remember it (Can't remember it)

Might have said some stupid shit but you know I didn't mean that shit (Didn't mean that shit)

In your eyes I know it's real (In your eyes)

We fuck up, but what's the deal? (What's the deal)

I'll never change, I will remain sane for you (Sane for you)

Looking out the window of a country that I never been (That I never been)

I got twenty boys outside the club, so just let 'em in

In your eyes I know it's real (In your eyes)

We fuck up, but what's the deal? (What's the deal)

I'll never change, I will remain sane for you (Always for you)

In your eyes I know it's real (In your eyes)

We fuck up, but what's the deal? (What's the deal)

In your eyes I know it's real (In your eyes)

We fuck up, but what's the deal? (What's the deal)

In your eyes I know it's real (In your eyes)

We fuck up, but what's the deal? (What's the deal)
