

No Tomorrow

Jonathan Butler

All through the night
I laid there and watched you dreaming
Brushed back your hair
Whispered in your ear
My feelings
While you were dreaming

Now I know I
Don't quite qualify
To have your love
So, while the moon lights your face
I thank the angels above
Thank them for your love

Can't take too much for granted
I don't want to lose
What I found in you
Love can be here then vanish
So, I promise today
To love you

Like there's no tomorrow
I need you so
Gonna love you
Like there's no tomorrow
I love you so

You're the sun in my rain
The joy in my pain
My everything
So, baby dream on
And I'll be right here
In the morning
From dusk til dawning

Can't take too much for granted
I don't want to lose
What I found in you
Love can be here then vanish
So, I promise today
To love you

Like there's no tomorrow
I need you so
Gonna love you
Like there's no tomorrow, oh oh
I love you so

Can't take too much for granted
I don't want to lose
What I found in you
Love can be here then vanish
So, I promise today
To love you

Like there's no tomorrow
I need you so (Need)

Gonna love you
Like there's no tomorrow (Love you baby, love you baby)
I love you so (Ooo)

Gonna love you
Like there's no tomorrow (No tomorrow)
I need you

(Love you, love you, love you)
Gonna love you
Oh oh
I love you so (Love you so)
