

Please Tell Me

Jonathan Davis

You're everything I've wanted
This tragedy is mine
I hold on and I fight it
They always, stupidity is blind
I fight for a reason
Maybe that's to blame
But I also know one thing
We will never be the same

So please tell me what the f*ck is going on
You keep me hanging on
I just wanna know that I'm, not wrong
So please tell me what the f*ck is going on
This shit keeps dragging on
I just wanna be where I belong

You're everything I've hated
It always ends the same
Hurt's premeditated
With constant in vain

I search for a reason
I know I hate the pain
I gotta know this one thing
Is it me that's insane?

So please tell me what the f*ck is going on
You keep me hanging on
I just wanna know that I'm, not wrong
So please tell me what the f*ck is going on
This shit keeps dragging on
I just wanna be where I belong

So please tell me what the f*ck is going on
You keep me hanging on
I just wanna know that I'm, not wrong
So please tell me what the f*ck is going on
This shit keeps dragging on
I just wanna be where I belong
