

It's a Beautiful Day

Jonathan Edwards

It's daybreak on the mountain
And it calls to lift us from our sleep
Look what the daylight's given
Wake up, the woods is livin'
Sing and be forgiven today
Oh yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah

It's a beautiful day
I believe it's a Sunday afternoon
It really don't matter
I stand there a-lookin' at her
She makes my memories scatter away
So far away, yeah, yeah
Lord, it's a beautiful
It's a beautiful day

There's a lesson here in nature
That the new life grows in the old life's death
Children know the reason
She shows them every season
They grow and find it pleasing today
Oh yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah

Children know the reason
Children know the reason
She shows them every, she shows them every season
Then they grow and, then they grow and
Then they grow and, and then they find it pleasing

And what a day it's been for living
Now the sunlight turns into a moon
It's been a good Sunday
The doorway is only one way
So listen to the music play away

Listen to the music playin'
Listen to the music playin'
Listen to the music sayin'
Listen what the music's sayin'
Oh, it's a beautiful day
Listen to the music play away
