

Finished Work Reprise

Jonathan McReynolds

Valley family, Jonathan McReynolds

We can all be resting
In the finished work
The finished work of God
I can finally rest in Knowing I'm living in
The finished work of God

How would things be different
If we all weren't just stressing?
And just living in
The finished work of God
We'd put some doctors out of business
If we learned how to just rest
In the finished work of God

We can all be resting
In the finished work
The finished work of God
I will rest in
The finished work
The finished work of God

Somebody go ahead and praise Him
For the finished work
He's already done it
He's already finished it
He's already won
What's all this stressing for?
What's all that anxiety for?
We're all resting in the finished work of God
