

Lover Of My Soul

Jonathan McReynolds

Their human bones are as fragile as mine
I have my flaws, but they have the same kind
I was ashamed 'cause I couldn't see
That grace says that they're in the same boat as me

But what I lack
You are full of
And where I'm broken
You are whole
And what I'm doubting
You are sure of
So I'll trust the lover
Lover of my soul

I'm not afraid of the arrows by day
Nor the darkness that comes when the sun rolls away
Lord, You know that my strength never lasts
But You make up for every weakness I have

And what I lack
You are full of
And where I'm broken
You are whole
And what I'm doubting
You are sure of
I'll trust the Lover
Lover of my soul, yeah

What I lack
You are full of
And where I'm broken (Where I'm broken)
You are whole (You are whole)
And what I'm doubting (What I'm doubting)
You are sure of (You are sure of)
I'll trust the Lover (I'll trust the Lover)
The Lover of my soul

See, what I lack (What I lack)
You are full of (You are full of)
And where I'm broken (where I'm broken)
You are whole (You are whole)
And what I'm doubting (what I'm doubting)
You are sure of (You are sure of)
So I'll trust the Lover (I'll trust the Lover)
Lover, Lover of my soul

What I confess
You will cover
And what I let go
You'll control
Lord, my hope is
In no other
I'll trust the Lover
Lover of my soul
