

Your World

Jonathan McReynolds

This is your world
I'm just living in it

The lilies ain't worried 'bout it
And the birds ain't chirpin' 'bout it
And you've done more for me
Than you've done for the trees
So, why would I even doubt it

If the rocks on the ground can say it
And a sky full of clouds can paint it
Who am I to be here complainin'?
Only thinking 'bout what I would change, yeah

This is your world
I'm just living in it
I'm just walking through it
Knowing that you're with me
This is your world
I'm just living in it
I'm just praying through it
Knowing that you listen

Hold up, every single one of my own plans
See, I'd rather have your heart
So I'll put 'em in your hands, mmm
This is your world
I'm just living in it
(He's got the whole world in His hands)
(He's got the whole world in His hands)

The world hasn't stopped turning
And the sun hasn't stopped burning
You make the universe expand
Just because you can
But I know you're more concerned about me

Worry can't add another minute to my life
Before I started you charted out the finish line, I know that

This is your world
I'm just living in it
I'm just walking through it
Knowing that you're with me
This is your world
I'm just living in it
I'm just praying through it
Knowing that you listen

Hold up, every single one of my own plans
See, I'd rather have your heart
So I put 'em in your hands, hold up

Hold up, every single one of my own plans
See, I'd rather have your heart
So I put 'em in your hands

Hold up, every single one of my own plans
See, I'd rather have your heart
So I put 'em in your hands, hold up

Hold up, every single one of my own plans
See, I'd rather have your heart
So I put 'em in your hands
This is your world
I'm just living in it
(He's got the whole world in His hands)
