

Miracles Will Start To Happen

Jonathan Richman

The lines around your eyes were never there before
One day to your surprise they'll be there no more
When we love again, miracles will start to happen

Well, we'll reign on this earth for a little while
And continue in the stars and make Saturn smile
When we love again, miracles will start to happen

In fact, I got this hug that's been building up
Well, can it do the job, oh yeah, it's touch enough
Cuz when we love again, miracles will start to happen

Well, we'll never grow aged and we'll never grow old
We may get grey, but we'll never grow cold
Cuz when we love again, miracles will start to happen

And any little hurt that your body has
It better just 23 skidoo, pal, and all that jazz
Cuz when we love again, miracles will start to happen

In fact, I've got this hug that's been building up
Can it do the job? oh yeah, it's touch enough
Cuz when we love again, well miracles will start to happen
When we love again, miracles are gonna start to happen
Whoa

The lines around your eyes were never there before
One day to your surprise they'll be there no more
When we love again, miracles will start to happen
Whoa

And we'll reign on this earth for a little while
Continue in the stars and make Saturn smile
Cuz when we love again, miracles gonna start to happen
Love again, miracles gonna start to happen
Love again, miracles gonna start to happen
