

You're the One for Me

Jonathan Richman

If you didn't want me you shouldn't have been born
That started all the trouble now the damage been done
You never should have been born
Cuz now you're the one for me

And if you didn't want me to follow you around
You never should have showed up around my town
You never should have come to town
Cuz now you're the one for me

And it's too late cuz now you're stuck with me
Better give up, it's me you choose
I say "ha ha ha ha, it's me, you lose."
It's too late cuz now my mind is set
You better give up because i won't forget
That could never never be
Well you're the one for me
Oh baby, oh honey
Well it's too late
You're the one for me

If you didn't want me you shouldn't have been born
And we never should have met that morn
We never should have met
Cuz now you're the one for me

And if you didn't want me to want you this way
Well you never should have seen my rock n roll band play

You never should have seen the lovers play

Cuz now you're the one for me.

And it's too late cuz now you're stuck with me

Better give up, it's me you choose

I say "ha ha ha ha, it's me, you lose."

It's too late cuz now my mind is set

You better give up because i won't forget

That could never never be

Well you're the one for me

Oh babe, oh honey

It's just too late

You're the one for me

You're the one for me

You're the one, you're the one

You're the one, it's too late

You're the one
