

Hold On 'Til I Break

Jonathan Roy

3am again and I can't seem to fall a sleep
Thoughts keep on rushing in and I'm going way to deep
Starring through darkness don't know who I'm gunna be
Breathe
Just breathe

I told them I was happy
Told them I was fine
I'm buried in the valley
Can't you hear my cries
I got too much to carry
I'm running far behind
I'm drowning fuck the glory
I just don't got the time

I'll hold on till I break
I'll hold on till I break

Gunna rise up from the bloody lows
And I promise I ain't letting go
Wanna see how much more I can take
I'll hold on till I break

Fucked up visions in my mind loosing track of time
Being lost ain't a crime it's just a part of life
Experiences and failures will strengthen up my spine
Breathe
Just breathe

I told them I was happy
Told them I was fine
I'm buried in the valley
Can't you hear my cries
I got too much to carry
I'm running far behind
I'm drowning fuck the glory
I just don't got the time

I'll hold on till I break
I'll hold on till I break

Gunna rise up from the bloody lows
And I promise I ain't letting go
Wanna see how much more I can take
I'll hold on till I break
Hold on till I break
I'll hold on till I break
