

Just For The Night I'm In Love With You

Jonathan Roy

She was really something
She blinked and her eyes were blue
Felt it in my stomach
I new that this was something new

The weight of the world's now suddenly gone
And this smile on my face it almost feels wrong

Hey you, do you love me like you say you do?
The way you kissed me makes me think you do
Am I too high to know the truth? It doesn't matter
'Cause just for tonight I'm in love with you

She's taking off her clothes now
I barely can remember my name
The walls begin to melt down
Tell me that you're feeling the same

The weight of the world's now suddenly gone
And this smile on my face, it almost feels wrong

Hey you, do you love me like you say you do?
The way you kissed me makes me think you do
Am I too high to know the truth? It doesn't matter
'Cause just for tonight I'm in love with you

Just for tonight
Just for tonight
Just for tonight
I'm in love with you
Just for tonight
Just for tonight
Just for tonight
I'm in love with you
Just for tonight
Just for tonight
Just for tonight
I'm in love with you
Just for tonight
Just for tonight
Just for tonight
I'm in love with you

Hey you, do you love me like you say you do?
The way you kissed me makes me think you do
Am I too high to know the truth? It doesn't matter
'Cause just for tonight I'm in love with you

Just for tonight
Just for tonight
Just for tonight
I'm in love with you
Just for tonight
Just for tonight
Just for tonight
I'm in love with you
Just for tonight

Just for tonight
Just for tonight
I'm in love with you
Just for tonight
Just for tonight
Just for tonight
I'm in love with you
