

Lost

Jonathan Roy

How the hell did we wind up here
You're hitting rock bottom and I'm full of fear

The cold wind has frozen your heart
Lets re-write this story and make it a long one
It's broken and falling apart
I won't let you lose who you are

You're lost in this lonely light
Trying to kill the pain you're feeling
Lost, but I'm here tonight
Trying to chase away your demons
I'll scream it, I mean it
Imma stand by you till you find what you've lost, lost

So much darkness in this space
You've come so far to have fallen from grace

The cold wind has frozen your heart
Lets re-write this story and make it a long one
It's broken and falling apart
I won't let you lose who you are

You're lost in this lonely light
Trying to kill the pain you're feeling
Lost, but I'm here tonight
Trying to chase away your demons
I'll scream it, I mean it
Imma stand by you till you find what you've lost, lost

Find what you've lost

The cold wind has frozen your heart
Lets re-write this story and make it a long one
It's broken and falling apart
I won't let you lose who you are

Lost in this lonely light
Trying to kill the pain you're feeling
Lost, but I'm here tonight
Trying to chase away your demons
I'll scream it, I mean it
Imma stand by you till you find what you've lost, lost
Imma stand by you till you find what you've lost, Imma stand
Imma stand by you till you find what you've lost
