

Waiting For A Call

Jonathan Roy

My baby she left me
Out down on the street
Broke my heart
And let me bleed
Oh my baby she swept me
Right up off my feet
She tore me right up
A pain so bittersweet
You say you loved me but
No way she really does
See The day she roughed me up
I never wanna see her face again

She's got me going back home sipping all alone just a bit stoned sitt ing by my phone
Waiting for a call that will never come
She's got me crying in the car I guess it fell apart, how'd it ever s tart, wasn't meant to be
Waiting for a call that will never come
Waiting for a call that will never come

My sadness is killing me
But you won't get my soul
Your love Might keep haunting me
Until I grow old
Oh my baby she left me
Led me down those streets
She took my heart
Damn I might never be freed

She's got me going back home sipping all alone just a bit stoned sitt ing by my phone
Waiting for a call that will never come
She's got me crying in the car I guess it fell apart, how'd it ever s tart, wasn't meant to be
Waiting for a call that will never come
Waiting for a call that will never come

You say you loved me but
No way she really does
See The day she roughed me up
Was the day it tied me up
In the darkness feeling stuck
Hope my faith is strong enough
Through the pain I won't give up
I never wanna hear her name again

She's got me going back home sipping all alone just a bit stoned sitt
in by my phone
Waiting for a call that will never come
She's got me crying in the car I guess it fell apart, how'd it ever s

Waiting for a call that will never come
