

Will You Be Back Someday

Jonathan Roy

Do you love me when I am not myself
Confused about this life and what its all about
Will you still hold me after years of ups and downs
When I'm scared of all my thoughts
And that clock that's ticking down

And I, I'm
I'm counting down the hours till you're back someday
And I, I'm
I'm holding it together till you're back someday

You told me you loved me and that we'll be fine
But now we're in therapy it's all on the line
Been waking up alone lord give me a sign
And I, I'm
I'm counting down the hours till you're back someday
And I, I'm
I'm holding it together till you're back someday

And will you love me when I'm only a fool
Chasing after dreams instead of running back you
Please forgive me
I know you've heard those words before
I mean them every time even when you think they're lies

And I, I'm
I'm counting down hours till you're back someday
And I, I'm
I'm holding it together till you're back someday

You told me you loved me and that we'll be fine
But now we're in therapy it's all on the line
Been waking up alone lord give me a sign
And I, I'm
I'm counting down the hours till you're back someday
And I, I'm
I'm holding it together till you're back someday

Oh
I'm counting down the hours till you're back someday
Oh
I'm holding it together till you're back someday

I, I'm
I'm counting down the hours till you're back someday
And I, I'm
I'm holding it together till you're back someday
