

Bombs Away

Jonathan Thulin

The bombs have dropped and I've fallen on my face
I made my decision and I'm feeling disgraced
But I won't stop till it's done
My fire and glow will be fading out soon
Cause my conscience broke and my heart's out of tune
But I won't stop till it's done
No I won't stop till it's done

Bombs away
Bombs away to my heart
To my heart
Bombs away

The devil came knocking at the door of my dreams
I knew it was wrong but my mind felt so free
Now I won't stop till it's done
No I won't stop till it's done

The battle of me and myself is exploding me
The fire is gaining on me and I'm letting it
I'm searching the heaven's and earth for the end of me
So here I am, here I am

Light the fuse cause my heart's gonna blow
