

BURBANK

Jonathan Thulin

I just closed my eyes for the first time
Started a new world in my past-time
I give myself every right to become somebody else
Chameleon, chameleon, just blending in

If I get tired of the same routine I might say fuck it
Give myself a little room to cause a little ruckus
You might never see my face again unless you're looking
New job new name new lens

Damn, I might move to Berlin
Maybe then I'll finally fit in
I've always been bad bitch
But right now I've had it
I just wanna start a new beginning in Atlantis
Or maybe just Burbank
I need new scenery

Don't get me wrong I'm hella grateful
No doubt It's an escape though
Yeah, I could own a restaurant in Naples
Or Vancouver, yeah, maybe I'll just do that Get into politics with Trevor Noah and Anderson Cooper

There's so much I could do...
What do I got to lose?...

Damn, I might move to Berlin
Maybe then I'll finally fit in
I've always been bad bitch
But right now I've had it
I just wanna start a new beginning in Atlantis
Or maybe just Burbank
I need new scenery
I need new scenery

I always try to be present and live the life I was given
But there nothing wrong with dreaming...
