

I Am Nothing

Jonathan Thulin

I thought that I was able, but my lamp's under the table
With my face against the corner I've forgotten
All the steps you laid before me how you brought me from a dead sea,
now amidst my hesitation I've forgotten

I can run far from you but my thirst would never die

Cause I'm nothing, without you inside of me
I am nothing without you I'm incomplete
So I need you now, need you always

So many expectations, I'm lost in the conversations about who y ou are
And who I should be. Take me back to loving you for The only reason that is true that you died and rose just to giv e me freedom

Finally I've found my peace I have nothing left to prove Cause trusting you in everything is all that I can do

I am nothing, without you inside of me Jesus I'm nothing Without you I'm incomplete so I need you now need you always
