

Soon

Jonathan Thulin

Close your eyes and see, let your heartflow speak
Listen to it's melody filling you
Let love roam round free, hesitance left be
Share it with your enemies and your closest friend

Let the hour become soon when it pours over you
Let the rough become soon let redemption follow through

Open up your mind leaving fear behind
Let your passion flow and rhyme
Words that bring life
Give yourself some time to grow wings
And fly watch the heavens open wide
Right before your eyes
