

No Hard Feelings

Jonathan Wilson

Let go the story lost its meaning now
We've seen too much to turn around
I'm tryin' just to write it all down
I'm here with just this needle and thread
And the last words you said

There's no hard, no hard feelings baby
No hard, no hard feelings baby
No hard know I wouldn't trade it, yeah

We found out later on down the road
There was no escape from the cold
But still we kept diggin' that hole
We let ourselves get caught in the storm
We waited too long but no one was wrong

There's no hard, no hard feelings baby
No hard, no hard feelings baby
No hard know I wouldn't trade it, yeah

No hard, no hard feelings baby
No hard, [?]
No hard, no hard feelings baby
