

Valentine

Jonezetta

I see there is something going on here
It tells in your voice
I know there's something really wrong here
Love is not a choice

Is it enough?
So hard to recognize bad habits when they arrive
The seasons don't feel the same
I no longer even know your name

I didn't want this for you
Never wanted this for you
I didn't want this for you
It just happened this way

I swear I heard it getting louder and much more clear
Oh no, it isn't how I planned it
I could never resist it
Is that enough?

Is that enough?
I didn't want this for you
Never wanted this for you
I didn't want this for you

It just happened this way.
