

Hello

Jonn Hart

Yeah

Yeah

A-a-ass so fat... baby run that back
Ain't never seen nothing like that
I just want to say hello
Hello... hello
I-I-I-I-I just want to tell you hello

Damn, I been on you for a minute
Time ticking, wonder when I'll get it
Life so good, you the only thing missing
Ride with a nigga, girl see something different, ouh
Brand new foreign cars, nice with all the stars
You're the one I'm falling for T-tell me what you need, just say no more
Stop frontin baby, back it up
Ima serve it til you had enough
Ima tell you one time, Ima beat it up til the neighbors call one time
Give it up

A-a-ass so fat... baby run that back
Ain't never seen nothing like that
I just want to say hello
Hello... hello
I-I-I-I-I just want to tell you hello (Jinsu, hahaha, yeah)

Whether the West or the East, I'm in it, I act a fool in it
See through linen: she on
The only thing she missing: a smooth nigga, that's me
The 8th alphabet letter cover that bell
Shit, I'm styling on myself, look
She ride with a dude, though I show and prove I'm analyzing the groove
She know I do what I do
Started with a simple hello, lead into catching feelings
You thinking you tripping on this situation? You dealing... so

Stop trippin baby, back it up (back it up)
Ima serve it til you had enough (you had enough, huh)
Let me tell you one time, Ima beat it up til the neighbors call one time (uh huh... woo!)

Give it up

A-a-ass so fat... baby run that back
Ain't never seen nothing like that
I just want to say hello
Hello... hello
I-I-I-I-I-I just want to tell you hello

Call you girl, you can call back
Tell your man he can fall back
Baby you the shit and all of that
So I just wanna, I just wanna
Call you girl, you can call back
Tell your man he can fall back
Baby you the shit and all of that

So I just wanna tell you hello

A-a-ass so fat... baby run that back

Ain't never seen nothing like that

I just want to say hello

Hello... hello

I-I-I-I-I-I just want to tell you hello
