

Selfish

Jonn Hart

Something's different, I can feel it babe
You've been trippin', about them then Talkin' about your friends, and what they [?]
I'm just livin', but you killin' me
Try to listen, but I got to speak
I don't wanna go there, but this gonna be (gonna be), gonna be (gonna be), g onna be (gonna be)

You've been talkin' about my crew and now they closin' the street
Talkin' bout how I do, when you know that I mean
I'll be damned if I walk away
I'll be damned if you leave
Can't help it, guess I'm just selfish

I don't wanna wait for somebody else to come lay your body out
Somethin' like I used to do
Smile like nobody watchin'
Hard between them miles and hours
Somethin' like I used to do
Guess I'm just selfish
Guess I'm just selfish
Guess I'm just selfish
Guess I'm just selfish

Confidence eh, what can I do to get your confidence yeah yeah?
This time you say it's different, oh baby yeah
Your friends don't like me, but I don't like them either
Like that one in the threat
Till I got that either, they been all up in my face
Talkin' bout all of themselves
You should know girl
But they go girl

You've been talkin' about my crew and now they closin' the street
Talkin' bout how I do, when you know that I mean
I'll be damned if I walk away
I'll be damned if you leave
Can't help it, guess I'm just selfish

I don't wanna wait for somebody else to come lay your body out
Somethin' like I used to do
Smile like nobody watchin'
Hard between them miles and hours
Somethin' like I used to do
Guess I'm just selfish
Guess I'm just selfish
Guess I'm just selfish
Guess I'm just selfish

You've been talkin' about my crew and now they closin' the street
Talkin' bout how I do, when you know that I mean
I'll be damned if I walked away
I'll be damned if you leave
Can't help it, guess I'm just selfish
