

Naaman Without the River Jordan

Jonny Craig

I can feel the weight of the world on my back
I don't want to complain like I'm under attack
The people that I know that are ashamed of me
But I am not the same
Things have changed for me

And now you're throwing names you can never take back
There's so much I can say but I wouldn't do that
The people that I know that are ashamed of me
But I am not the same
Things have changed for me

Yeah Yeah Yeah
Let's be honest
Hate me for my problems
Hate me for them times when I was wildin primadonna
I had partners who were with me
We was grinding at the bottom
Shit got hot
They dropped off
But the verse wasn't coming
Taikin' credit for my shit
Like they runnin' my luck
Y'all would quit the dip
When the money dried up
You know the deals be real
But tell me how it feels
Now it hang up on your face, bitch
Sunny side up

You threw the weight of the world on my back
I don't want to complain like I'm under attack
The people that I know that are ashamed of me
But I am not the same
Things have changed for me

And now you're throwing names you can never take back
There's so much I can say but I wouldn't do that
The people that I know that are ashamed of me
But I am not the same
Things have changed for me

Yeah Yeah Yeah
It's always those who can't do
They just the first to criticize
Sayin' that you ain't a fan
What
Men'll lie
I'm in your top 5
Climb the tallest building you can find
Go ahead take a swan dive
Film that shit
Put it online
I coulda been this
Coulda been that
Throwin' stones at that glass house
Talking shit with a glass mouth

That right there right there though gonna leave your ass out
Ain't it funny how your boy got the last laugh

You threw the weight of the world on my back
I don't want to complain like I'm under attack
The people that I know that are ashamed of me
But I am not the same
Things have changed for me

And now you're throwing names you can never take back
There's so much I can say but I wouldn't do that
The people that I know that are ashamed of me
But I am not the same
Things have changed for me

Yeah
Y'all can still be mad at me and that's fine
I can't do shit about that
Just know I occupy a large portion of your mind
I ain't goin' anywhere
I do know one thing though if you said it I heard it
You wrote it I read it
Even if you tweeted, deleted it, believe it I seen it
I got a list full of names and I'm checkin' off people one by one
Hope yo ass ain't fast

I can feel the weight of the world on my back
I don't want to complain like I'm under attack
The people that I know that are ashamed of me
But I am not the same
Things have changed for me

And now you're throwing names you can never take back
There's so much I can say but I wouldn't do that
The people that I know that are ashamed of me
But I am not the same
Things have changed for me
