

Resist, Rebel

Jonny Craig

I blame God
for the loss of the only woman I've loved
I blame God
for the loss of the only woman I've loved
I blame God
for the loss of the only woman I've loved
Loved, loved

Let the shadow take all you're worth
Let the shadow take more than words
Let shadow fill you with doubt this time

Let the shadow take all you're worth
Let the shadow take more than words
Let shadow fill you with doubt this time

Let you know
Let you know you can

Resist, rebel
feed the flames of a lonely fire, lonely fire Resist the urge to follow the one with the holy power

And if he's the one, scream it out loud
And if he's the one, I'll follow your lead, your lead
I can't forget the things she taught me
Oh I won't forget the things she taught me

Resist, rebel
feed the flames of a lonely fire, lonely fire, lonely fire Resist the urge with the holy power, holy power, holy power
And if he's the one, scream out his name
Oh and if he's the one, scream out his name
Resisting your word
Resisting the old word
Resisting the old word
