

Rhythm in My Soul

Jonny Craig

Cold sweat, goosebumps
My insomnia has come out to play
My depression's at the door
Suicidal tendencies, they're begging for more
Banging banging away
Trying to get in while my body aches.
I can feel you in my veins girl
Baby I'm fiending for you
Well I can feel you in my veins girl
I'm fiending for you.

I'm running away from everything but you, but you...

I can be the rock to your roll
you can be the rhythm in my soul
I can be your hero, you can be my heroine.

Cold sweat, goosebumps
My insomnia it just jumps
My blood pressure rises
And I can't feel my legs
My stroke could happen at any moment
My heart beat flies through the room
Flies through you
All the aches, they're pain in me
And my panic is freaking out
I'm fiending for you babe
I can feel you in my veins
Fiending for you babe
I can feel you in my veins
Fiending for you baby
I can feel you in my veins

I'm running away from everything but you, but you...

I can be the rock to your roll
you can be the rhythm in my soul
I can be your hero, you can be my heroine.

I can be the rock to your roll
I can feel you in my veins
I can be your hero
Fiending for you baby.

I don't think I'll ever get over you
I don't think I'll ever get over you
I can be your hero, you can be my heroine
