

Try as we might.

Jonny Craig

Don't get stuck on what we couldn't be Moving forward is where you should be
Don't look back, that'll get you feeling tired
Where I'm at
Can't give you a true desire

Just take your space
Baby, you don't need to keep on pushing it back
I don't wanna keep wasting all your time
Go home, without me

Just take your space
Go ahead and move on, girl
It's your time
No more pretending that you're mine
Go home, without me

I'm surrounded by my demons, baby
I don't think that love will let me leave
Honestly, I am not even trying

Maybe, maybe at a later time

Just take your space
Baby, you don't need to keep on pushing it back
I don't wanna keep wasting all your time
Go home, just go, without me
Just take your space
Go ahead and move on, girl its your time
No more pretending that you're mine

Go home, without me
