

Turning the Page

Jonny Craig

Waiting in the wings
Waiting for you
Waiting for us
Waiting for a change
Time should make us closer
But it's pullin' me away
Prayin' for some faith
In each other while we say
That nothing can shake this

Don't stop me, don't stop me from falling
There is no, there's no silver lining
I just can't find
A reason why
You pull me in then you keep me outside

Oh-oh-oh-oh
I'm stuck and jaded
No luck, I hate it
I keep on saying
I'm out of patience
I'm stuck and jaded
No luck, I hate it
I keep on saying

I know we got ourselves into a mess here
It's not all on you
Sticky situation that we're finding
Complicated, hard to keep it silent
Hating the feeling, it's out of my hands

Don't stop me, don't stop me from falling
There is no, there's no silver lining
I just can't find
A reason why
You pull me in then you keep me outside

Oh-oh-oh-oh
I'm stuck and jaded
No luck, I hate it
I keep on saying
I'm out of patience
I'm stuck and jaded
No luck, I hate it
I keep on saying

You keep pulling away
While you beg me to stay
Nothing makes sense
Keep me out in the cold
All the waiting gets old
Nothing makes sense
The moments spent apart feel uncertain
What makes you think I deserve this?
What makes you think I'm not hurting?

Oh-oh-oh-oh
I'm stuck and jaded
No luck, I hate it
I keep (keep) on saying
I'm out (I'm out) of patience
I'm stuck and jaded
No luck (no luck) I hate it
I keep (I keep) on saying
