

You Are A Storm

Jonny Diaz

Darkness fighting thunder lightning
Crashing down from above
Sometimes frightening always exciting
It's the storm that I love

I am leading but still needing
You if I'll ever grow
Sun is hiding so inspiring
You keep me on my toes

You are a storm filled with deep mystery
And while others may run it's inviting to me
Darlin I'll brave the winds if you promise the same
Cause you are a storm...but I love the rain

Some take cover I'll discover
Every drop's not the same
Always finding so enlightening
That's why I love the rain

Girl you're the reason my knees are now weak
I'm discovering you from the edge of my seat
Yeah my life would be easy with all sunny days
I know it sounds crazy but bring on the rain
