

Your Love Feels Like Home

Jonny Diaz

When I first met you, my faith was on fire
Climbing up mountains and walking on wires
Trying so hard to impress you
But you don't need me to impress you
Time has gone by, now I can see
There's nothing to prove you just want me for me
Where there was striving there's peace
'Cause I know I'm forgiven and free

Your love takes me as I am
The softest place to land
It knows me
And still holds me
Anywhere I've ever been
Anywhere that I could go
Your love feels like home

You know all my secrets and still never leave
Through peaks and valleys you're right there with me
From the beginning to end
Over and over again

Your love takes me as I am
The softest place to land
It knows me
And still holds me
Anywhere I've ever been
Anywhere that I could go
Your love feels like home

Always welcomed, always wanted
God, you tell me, I belong to you and you alone
Your love feels like home

Your love takes me as I am
The softest place to land
It knows me
And still holds me
Anywhere I've ever been
Anywhere that I could go
Your love feels like home...
