

Lovin' My Baby

Jonny Lang

I got my baby's love now
Know she's got mine

I got my baby's love now
Know she's got mine

Well I sit around and stare at her
Oh man oh man she sure look fine

My baby's eyes are as clear as the bluest sky
My baby's eyes are as clear as the bluest sky
If the world were like my baby
The good lord sure would be satisfied

Looked at other women
Changed my mind
Compared to my baby
They're a dozen for a dime

My baby sure look fine
Her sweet shinin' smile
Can turn black dirty water into wine
