

Tonight
We are one
So let's set the world on fire
Pull an all-nighter, the party has just begun
Tonight
We are one
So let's set the world on fire
Pull an all-nighter, the party has just begun
We are one

(Hey, Scooter!) Yeah
The loud, loud music is very intrusive
But that's why we do this, 'cause we are one
The people from the world
Just the boys and all the girls
They all want one thing and that is
For us to come together
It's clearly now or never
Stop calling people dumb, 'cause they might be very clever
Just wanna get along, together we are strong
And if you're very sad, sing a song
Like ring-ding-ding-a-dong

Tonight
We are one
So let's set the world on fire
Pull an all-nighter, the party has just begun
Tonight
We are one
So let's set the world on fire
Pull an all-nighter (Yeah), the party has just begun
We are one

Day is all that it takes
To change the ways and the ways things change
'Cause one day, we will be okay
It's one way or another
My brother, my brother Dave

I'm, I'm looking for a party
Maybe I should call my friend
Hey, Dave!
What's going on?
Dave!
It's time to play?
Yes, you, Dave!
Once again
You're never too old, too old to rave

Yeah
Give me that

To beer or not to beer, that's the question
Let's go to a pub, that's my suggestion
We all come together, this night will last forever
We start a massive rave
It's Joost and Sheffield Dave

To beer or not to beer, that's the question
Let's go to a pub, that's my suggestion
Come and join the crowd, we shout it out loud
To beer or not to beer, that's why we are here

Tonight
We are one (We are one)
So let's set the world on fire
Pull an all-nighter, the party has just begun
