

Real Ones

Jordan Adetunji

I just got so much fake love around me
I just gotta keep the real ones around me
Trust issues, I don't trust about damn near nobody
I might have to go and tat that all up on my body
So real! Please don't try and tell about the pain that you don't feel
Have to try and take away the pain but I'm not steel (not steel)
Fake love got me insane and I don't wanna feel away

I just got so much fake love around me
I just gotta keep the real ones around me
Trust issues, I don't trust about damn near nobody

Fake love got me insane and I don't wanna feel away

They won't say it to my face but they might talk behind my back
But they know I'm the way, I ain't got time for all that chat
You man switch up for change and I can never be like that Rockstar living, living large, tryna put the city on the map

Yeah I know yeah, ready to go yeah
I'ma keep going 'til I'm at the top and I'm letting it go yeah
I'ma stay real and I'm never gon' stop and I'm letting it known, yeah
Letting it known, yeah, letting them know yeah

Yeah I know they hating me (yeah) 'cause they can't do it like me
(Yeah) diamonds all up in my teeth (yeah) when I pull up with the team
Yeah, we shining through like a beam, yeah make it as good as it seems Yeah we shining through like a beam, yeah yeah

Fake love won't stop me from my ambition and they hate that they give
Only fuels my ignition, you recieve more love under one condition
If you don't give back then you won't keep winning (yeah)

I just got so much fake love around me
I just gotta keep the real ones around me
Trust issues, I don't trust about damn near nobody
I might have to go and tat that all up on my body
So real! Please don't try and tell about the pain that you don't feel
Have to try and take away the pain but I'm not steel (not steel)
