

Banks

Jordan Davis

I wanna be there
When the voices in your head
Are loud enough to
Make you lose your mind
Just the same when you're
Dominating the day
I wanna be the one
Who's by your side
You know my love
Is not the jealous type
It doesn't matter
If we win or lose
I could stay or
I could come no matter
Where you're coming from
I could be the one
To let you choose

I wanna hold you close
But never hold you back
Just like the banks to the river
And if you ever feel like
You are not enough
I'm gonna break all your mirrors
I wanna be there
When the darkness closes in
To make the truth
A little clearer
I wanna hold you close
But never hold you back
I'll be the banks for your river

(I'll be the banks
For your river)
(I'll be the banks
For your river)
You are beautiful and wild
At every turn
Who am I to take control of that
Everybody needs a voice
They can follow
When the water and the winds
Get bad
You know my love
Is not the jealous type
It don't matter
If we win or lose
I could push or
I could pull no matter
What you're trying to do
As long as
I can flow along with you

I wanna hold you close

You are not enough
I wanna be there
To make the truth
A little clearer
I'll be the banks for your river

(I'll be the banks
For your river)
(I'll be the banks
For your river)
Baby, I ain't saying
That you need my help
But you don't have to do it all
By yourself
So baby
When the current gets strong
And you need somewhere
To rest your bones
I wanna be there for you
I wanna be strong for you

I wanna hold you close
You are not enough
I'm gonna break all your mirrors
I wanna be there
To make the truth
A little clearer
But never hold you back
I'll be the banks for your river

I wanna hold you close
But never hold you back
I'll be the banks for your river
You are not enough
I'll be the banks for your river
I wanna be there
To make the truth
A little clearer
I'll be the banks for your river
