

Future

Jordan Feliz

When my plans unravel and the doors all close
If tomorrow finds me on a dead-end road
There's a promise waiting, just like coming home
So I can dance into the great unknown

And I'll keep on moving, it's only just begun
I trust You'll lead me, forever I will run
Because...

You go before me, You make it clear
You give me hope and
A future, a future
So why live in worry, why live in fear
When I know You're holding
The future, the future
(Oh-oh-ooh) the future, the future
(I know You hold) the future, the future

Like a brand new morning and I'm feeling fine
'Cause my eyes are lifted to Heaven's light
Your plans are perfect, You can do no wrong
So I'll cast all my cares until they're gone

And I'll keep on moving, it's only just begun
I trust You'll lead me, forever I will run
Because...

You go before me, You make it clear
You give me hope and
A future, a future
So why live in worry, why live in fear
When I know You're holding
The future, the future
(Oh-oh-ooh) the future, the future
(I know You hold) the future, the future
(Oh-oh-ooh) the future, the future
(I know You hold) the future, the future

No matter what comes next, I got nothing to lose
No matter what the future holds, I'm trusting in You
No matter what comes next, I got nothing to lose
No matter what the future holds... I'm trusting in You

You go before me, You make it clear
You give me hope and
A future, a future
So why live in worry, why live in fear
When I know You're holding
The future, the future
(Oh-oh-ooh) the future, the future
(I know You hold) the future, the future
(Oh-oh-ooh) the future, the future
(I know You hold) the future, the future
