

My Shelter

Jordan Feliz

I'm still standing
By a power beyond my understanding
Oh, so many times when my heart crash-landed
I get stuck sometimes but I'm never stranded
Yeah-e-yeah...

You never said there won't be pain
And I've felt my share of fire and rain
But I trust in You
The tide may rise, the ground might shake
But my hope comes when I call Your name
And my hope's renewed

Where can I go when life falls heavy and fear is thundering?
Lord, You cover me
'Cause I know my best protection is right in front of me
So I'm gonna be
Running to my shelter
Running to my shelter
You're holding me together
I'm running to my shelter

Sirens warning
Trouble overhead and the clouds are forming
But I know You're holding me high above it
I'm not overwhelmed 'cause You've overcome it
Yeah-e-yeah...

You never said there won't be pain
And I've felt my share of fire and rain
But I trust in You
The tide may rise, the ground might shake
But my hope comes when I call Your name
And my hope's renewed

Where can I go when life falls heavy and fear is thundering?
Lord, You cover me
'Cause I know my best protection is right in front of me
So I'm gonna be
Running to my shelter
Running to my shelter
You're holding me together
I'm running to my shelter

There is light for tired eyes
There is rest for weary feet
There is hope for hurting hearts
Would You remind me?

Where can I go when life falls heavy and fear is thundering?
Lord, You cover me
'Cause I know my best protection is right in front of me
So I'm gonna be
Running to my shelter
Running to my shelter
You're holding me together
I'm running to my shelter

Yeah!
