

Perfect lie

Jordan Pruitt

I hate those dark blue eyes
And the way you hypnotize me
I can't resist you if I tried
You know just what to say
When I start to walk away
And your touch just gets me every time

You use my love against me
You make the hurt seem pretty
You keep playing with my mind

I know you're so bad for me
But you keep running after me
Even though I see what's right in front of me
I keep falling
Your kiss is danger in disguise
Trouble written in the sky
Killing me, your life is such a perfect lie

You knock my heart away
Leave me with no choice to say
But I'm good to be here trapped inside

You use my love against me
You make the hurt seem pretty
You keep playing with my mind

I know you're so bad for me
But you keep running after me
Even though I see what's right in front of me
I keep falling
Your kiss is danger in disguise
Trouble written in the sky
Killing me, your life is such a perfect lie

I know that you ain't right
But I still believed your lies
(Ooh)
Your lies
(Yeah ooh)

I know you're so bad for me
But you keep running after me
Even though I see what's right in front of me

Your kiss is danger in disguise
Trouble written in the sky
Killing me, your life is such a perfect lie
