

Always Coming

Jordan Rakei

Danced on an open [?]
I steadily admit it was fate
To lose but a moment's time
I hope that it doesn't come too late
So spared me my life
I'll have to show that I am worthy of you

I know that you'll understand
So hear me as I make this request
Let me rise to make me whole again
Until then you can put me to rest
Spared me my life
I'll have to show that I am worthy of you

I had hoped I'd never too long
Always comin'
Never dreamed that it would carry on
Always comin'
Keep your patience, I'm almost there
Always comin'
No more sufferin' you'll have to spare
Always comin'

So often, I sit confused
Sayin', "Why is just hapennin' to me?"
Failing to shift through all the yous
Makin' it much harder to breathe
So spared me my life
I'll have to show that I am worthy of you

Here is your secret to keep
Now tellin' you has put me at ease
Prayin' on one last final sleep
Will take me to the roots of the trees
So spared me my life
I'll have to show that I am worthy of you

I had hoped I'd never too long
Always comin'
Never dreamed that it would carry on
Always comin'
Keep your patience, I'm almost there
Always comin'
No more sufferin' you'll have to spare
Always comin'
