

Cages

Jordan Rakei

I see strange people
Everywhere I go
If they need deliverance
Tell 'em where to go
When they beg for forgiveness
To allow their growth
They've been walking down the long road
Before the final blow

It's when you look in his eyes and see
There's a man in a cage
Shouting and screaming
He wants to feel
It's when you look in her eyes and see
There's a mouth waiting to feed
Shouting and screaming
She wants to feel
Oh

If they could shake all their memories
And that look in their eyes
When they burn all that energy
A small part of them dies

It's when you look in his eyes and see
There's a man in a cage
Shouting and screaming
He wants to feel
It's when you look in her eyes and see
There's a mouth waiting to feed
Shouting and screaming
She wants to feel
Oh, baby

It's when you look in his eyes and see
There's a man trapped in a cage, yeah
It's when you look in her eyes and see
There's a mouth waiting to feed, yeah