

Goodbyes

Jordan Rakei

Yes I was flaking on you
Guess I was sturdy about it last night
No need to take away from it
You flew, I surrender to the moment
You washed away the sadness
Your world had no minimum requirements
So tender, hands off a sweet machine
I spot the soul of a masquerade-rade

Unnecessary goodbyes
You've taken your time
Unwrestled by the moment
Homed by the thread of your mind

Talk deep to test the water
3 inches too far and too slow
I stepped right into order
You welcome the settle of a throne
Ice keeps melting like rain drops, rain drops
Clouds of guilt built like a nimbus
I'm weak it's such a mercy
Control me like a circus, the circus

Unnecessary goodbyes
You've taken your time
Unwrestled by the moment
Homed by the thread of your mind

Unnecessary goodbyes
You've taken your time
Unwrestled by the moment
Homed by the thread of your mind
